TO BE GREATEST IN HISTORY

Naval Display That Will Be Made at San Francisco.

WITH EVANS IN COMMAND

Eighteen Big Battleships, Eight Armored Cruisers and Other Fighting Craft of the United States Navy Will Sail Through the Golden Gate.

Monterey, Cal., May 2.—The Atlantic fleet of battleships steamed in here to give Monterey peninsula a place in the history of the American navy's record-breaking cruise around the world. Residents of Monterey and Pacific Grove and all the other settlements of the vicinity made the occasion of the arrival a holiday. They lined the water front when the fleet dropped anchor and lingered long to view the beautiful marine spectacle of the sixteen ships drawn up in divisional formation. Throughout the day the streets and the decks of the battleships were thronged with visitors. A great variety of entertainments ashore both for the men and the officers of the fleet marked the first day of the battleships' visit.

New orders were issued covering the entry of the fleet through the Golden Gate into San Francisco bay on Wednesday next. The revised plans provide for the most formidable and picturesque naval display in the history of the nation. It is now ordered that all of the vessels of the Pacific fleet shall join the Atlantic battleships outside the Golden Gate and steam with them through the harbor entrance to the anchorage in the bay, where the review of the navy is to be held. Practically the entire fighting force of the navy, with the exception of a few newly commissioned ships in the East and a few gunboats in Philippine waters, will be in the great column.

Forty-six vessels will be in line. The variety of fighting craft will range from the massive 16,000-ton Connecticut down to the little destroyer Fox of 154 tons displacement.

Battleships, armored cruisers, protected cruisers, gunboats, destroyers, torpedo boats and auxiliaries—in fact every class of vessels in the navy save the obsolete monitors—will be represented.

Evans Will Be in Command.

Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans will be either on the bridge of the Connecticut or in the emergency cabin, where he can command a full view of the fleet, in entering San Francisco bay. The hour of rendezvous outside the Golden Gate will be at the 10 o'clock hour.

San Francisco Battleship—has been fixed for 9 a. m., on Wednesday, May 6. Three hours later, or as near noon as the calculations of the navigators can compute, the broad white bow of the Connecticut will appear within the gateway. The flagship will be followed by the fifteen other vessels of the fleet and by two additional battleships anchored outside the harbor entrance—the Nebraska and Wisconsin—making eighteen battleships in all, the largest number ever brought into one command.

Next will come the two divisions of magnificent armored cruisers of the West Virginia type—13,000 and 14,000-ton flyers—eight in all, and the other cruisers of the Pacific fleet. Following these will be the torpedo boat flotilla, which made the trip through the Straits of Magellan, and the flotilla of the Pacific fleet, at the end of the line will come the auxiliaries, six in number. The poor old black-hulled, soot-begrimed colliers, which did so much to make the recent cruise a success, alone will be lacking.

Rear Admiral Emory of the Second division entertained his fellow flag officers and the captains of the fleet at luncheon at the Hotel Del Montes, and there was a dinner to the admirals, captains, Governor Gillette and staff at the Del Monte with Mayor Jacks of Monterey as host.

A flag raising in Monterey, attended by a number of detailed officers, dances for the men at two big halls, a confetti battle in the streets, boxing bouts, a lantern festival at Pacific grove, a dance for the junior officers at the Presidio of Monterey and the illumination of the fleet were features of the entertainment.

LOCOMOTIVE BLOWS UP.

Several Persons Reported to Have Been Killed or Injured.

Butte, Mont., May 2.—One of the two locomotives driving eastbound passenger train on the Northern Pacific known as the Burlington flyer, blew up about two miles west of the union station as it was approaching this city. It is reported that several persons were killed or injured.

Girl Killed by an Automobile.

New Haven, Conn., May 2.—Sophie Suderman, eight years old, was run over and fatally injured here by an automobile owned by Huntington Smith, a Yale student, whose home is in St. Louis. The car was occupied by Smith and two other Yale students and was driven by William B. Mosely, a chauffeur of Bridgeport, Conn. It is alleged the girl ran in front of the machine. Her skull was fractured and she died in a hospital. The occupants of the car were arrested. Coroner Mix held Mosely in $1,000 bonds for a hearing and released the others.

FIGHTS ELKINS' PLAN

Senator Nelson Opposes West Virginian's Scheme.

NOT ENTITLED TO RESPITE

Minnesotan Argues That Railroads Have Not Assumed an Attitude That Entitles Them to Consideration. Subject Unsettled.

Washington, May 2.—The time of the senate was taken up for two hours with a speech by Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas, asking that the committee on the judiciary be discharged from further consideration of his bill for the suppression of trusts. The remainder of the day was given over to the consideration of a resolution by Senator Elkins suspending until Jan. 1, 1910, the commodity clause of the Hepburn railroad rate law. The resolution provoked so much debate and so many amendments were offered dealing with other phases of the railroad legislation that the whole matter went over until Monday. In the meantime the senate leaders hope to perfect a resolution that can be agreed upon next Monday.

The commodity clause, under the provisions of the Hepburn bill, went into effect May 1 and railroads therefore which haul interstate commerce products of mines or manufacturing in which the carriers are interested are liable to maximum fines of $5,000 for each offense. The Elkins resolution proposes to give the railroads twenty months additional time in which to divorce themselves from these properties, on the ground that the financial condition of the country has been such that the railroads have been unable to find buyers and to settle such questions of joint ownership as are involved in mortgages covering both the railroad property and mining or manufacturing property. Mr. Elkins used this argument in pleading for the adoption of his resolution. Several senators, notably Messrs. Culberson and Nelson, argued that the railroads had not assumed an attitude that entitled them to consideration. With the whole subject unsettled and many amendments pending the senate adjourned.

Resolution Originally Proposed.

The resolution originally proposed to extend the time for the commencement of the operation of the commodity clause until May 1, 1910, but the senate interstate commerce committee changed the date to Jan. 1, 1910. When the measure was called up several days ago it went over under objection from Mr. Culberson, the minority leader, but it was taken up by vote of the senate.

Mr. Culberson had refused unanimous consent and he was first recognized to speak against the resolution. He said that the committee had given no reasons why the extension should be made, and called upon Chairman Elkins for an explanation.

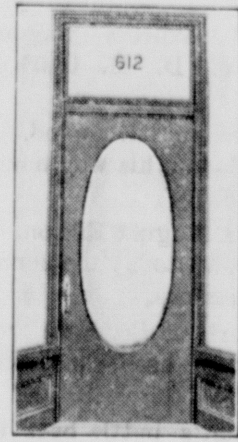

Mr. Elkins answered that the condition of the country demanded a delay in the operation of the law; that the railroads have been unable to find capitalists to take over the coal lands owned by the roads. For this situation he blamed the recent panic, and he said that had it not been for this money shortage and business depression the railroads would have been able to comply with the law.

He called attention to the fact that the bill did not repeal the law, but only suspended it temporarily.

Mr. Nelson said it appeared that the attitude of the railroads was against compliance with the law and to litigate as to the power of congress to enact such legislation. He expressed the opinion that the railroads were not entitled to any special consideration. So long as the railroads undertook to attack the validity of the law, he declared, congress was under no obligation to favor them.

Unable to Locate Pennsylvania Train Robbers.

Pittsburg, May 2.—Officials of the Pennsylvania Railway company and the Adams Express company have but little more accurate information on the daring robbery of the express car on the fast New York-St. Louis express at Walker's Mills just beyond the city limits of Pittsburg Thursday night than was given them in the first report of the theft telegraphed when the train reached Steubenville, O. Pinkerton detectives were early put in charge of the case and together with the secret service forces of the railroad company and the city and county detectives have been at work ever since the robbery, but report little progress.

Express Messenger Noah Roshen, fifty-four years of age, an old employee of the express company, who was alone in the car when the robbery was committed, was ordered to return to Pittsburg when the train reached Columbus and for several hours was in conference with officials and detectives, part of the time undergoing a sweating process. At the end of this ordeal he left for his home, officials of the company stating that there was no charge against him and that he was not even being kept under surveillance.

It is now pretty well established that the robbers did not get over $600.

of which $441.71 was in currency in three packages and the balance in several small packages of merchandise, presumably jewelry. The robbers cast aside a number of valuable packages that were bulky and evidently were after nothing but cash. Reports that large sums of money were taken from the car, emanating in New York and elsewhere, are denied by those in charge of the case here.

IN THE NAME OF HUMANITY

Appeal Made to President Roosevelt in the Interests of Cattle.

Washington, May 2.—An appeal has been made to President Roosevelt by the American Humane association in the interests of the cattle that graze on the Western ranges. In a petition to the chief executive the association endorses the president's efforts to obtain proper federal control of the public domain, especially the grazing privileges thereon. It is claimed that the government reports show that over 2,500,000 deaths from exposure of sheep and cattle occurred during the year ending March 31, 1905.

It is held that the wholesale perishing of range animals on Western plains is due to starvation and thirst, caused by overcrowding and abuse of the public ranges. To prevent this the association recommends the passage of a fair and equitable lease or grazing law providing that the owners of all stock grazing under lease shall provide stock with proper summer and winter sustenance.

"In the name of civilization and humanity," the petition reads, "we appeal to you, Mr. President, to find a way, as you have been known to do on previous occasions, to expedite the slow process of public education on this subject and to quicken the public conscience."

SECRET SERVICE EMPLOYEES

Work Confined to Guarding President and Chasing Counterfeiters.

Washington, May 2.—The house spent all day in considering and passing paragraph by paragraph under suspension of the rules the sundry civil appropriation bill.

As the outcome of a determined effort to strike from the bill a restriction prohibiting the employment of secret service employees in any detective work other than the guarding of the president and the running down of counterfeiters, which effort was vigorously opposed by members of the appropriations committee, the limitation was agreed to and the paragraph adopted in substantially its original form.

Objection by Democratic members, in pursuance of the minority filibuster, to unanimous consent defeated the passage of a bill for the printing and distributing of 100,000 copies of a special report by the department of agriculture describing diseases of cattle.

VANDERBILT'S TRIUMPH!

Great Enthusiasm Over Millionaire's
Trial Coaching Trip In England.

"I should think there never has been such enthusiasm over a coaching trip displayed before," said Alfred G. Vanderbilt to the New York World correspondent as he drove the coach Meteor
into Brighton, England, the other evening from London. "I cannot understand it. This trip, which was only a rehearsal, shows how popular the stage-coach must be still. I never expected anything like this. It has stirred me deeply.

"This has been one of the greatest days of my life. I have been longing
for it a whole year, but never imagined
it would be anything like this."

The trip from London was only a trial, so the Venture was not pulled
out. The journey was made on the Meteor, an old English road coach,
with a small party.

An enormous crowd gathered outside
the Berkeley hotel, in London, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon to see Mr. Vanderbilt drive off. People four deep lined the route along Piccadilly and Knightsbridge and wildly cheered. The whole trip was like a triumphant procession, the inhabitants of every village turning out to cheer.

At the second stage Mr. Vanderbilt was so tired from raising his whip to answer salutes that he had to hand the reins to his manager, Charles Wilson.
Thousands lined the streets at Brighton, and a dense crowd was wedged in front of the Metropole to watch the coach draw up at eight minutes past
3 o'clock.

German Nature Theater.

Unique plans are afoot for the construction of a permanent outdoor theater amid the picturesque wooded hills
of the grand duchy of Saxe-Weimar.
In the vicinity of Eisenach, in Germany, where it was Richard Wagner's original intention to establish the Festspiel theater, now located at Baireuth.

Eisenach is also the seat of the celebrated Wartburg castle, immortalized
by Martin Luther and within whose walls the story of the "Meistersinger of Nuremberg" is laid. A large sum has already been subscribed for the
"nature theater" project, and its eventual realization is regarded as certain.

CASE IS UNPRECEDENTED

Half of a Boy's Brain Missing and Its Place Taken by a Fluid.

Baltimore, May 2.—Albert M. Groff, eleven years old, died at the Maryland
homeopathic hospital after an operation. This operation made known a condition of the brain which the hospital physicians say is altogether un-
half of the brain substance had disappeared and its place was taken by a fluid, one and three-quarters pints of which were removed. About four years ago the boy was struck on the head with a bat during a ball game.
No noteworthy effects followed at the time, but months afterward young Groff lost the sight of the right eye
and later the left became affected.
Subsequently the use of his right leg
was lost then that of his right arm.
Gradually the entire right side became affected and the left side of the skull was much distended. For some months past he had suffered no pain,
though he seemed to be slowly dying.
The operation was performed in the belief that there might be some pressure upon the brain. This was found not to exist, however, the fluid found seemingly having dissolved the brain
matter.

A. Anderson, where a reception was held. Later he attended a banquet given by the college.

WIFE SICK SIX YEARS.

When the wife is sick everything goes wrong in the family. Then is when we appreciate a remedy that restores "mother" to her thousand and one places of need. A Minneapolis man speaks from his own knowledge when he writes us:

"My wife has been afflicted with a very severe case of rheumatism in her lower limbs for the past six years.
We tried several doctors as well as remedies but without effect.

"Your great Blood and Rheumatism Cure, 6088, was recommended to me by a friend whom it had cured. She tried it, and after using a couple of bottles of the remedy she is about free from any rheumatic trouble.

"I cheerfully recommend it to anyone who is suffering with rheumatism.

VANDERBILT'S TRIUMPH!

Great Enthusiasm Over Millionaire's
Trial Coaching Trip in England.

"I should think there never has been
such enthusiasm over a coaching trip
displayed before," said Alfred G. Vanderbilt to the New York World correspondent as he drove the coach Meteor
into Brighton, England, the other evening from London. "I cannot understand it. This trip, which was only a rehearsal, shows how popular the stage-
coach must be still. I never expected anything like this. It has stirred me
deeply.

"This has been one of the greatest
days of my life. I have been longing
for it a whole year, but never imagined
it would be anything like this."

The trip from London was only a trial, so the Venture was not pulled
out. The journey was made on the Meteor, an old English road coach,
with a small party.

An enormous crowd gathered outside
the Berkeley hotel, in London, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon to see Mr. Vanderbilt drive off. People four deep lined the route along Piccadilly and Knightsbridge and wildly cheered. The whole trip was like a triumphant procession, the inhabitants of every village turning out to cheer.

At the second stage Mr. Vanderbilt
was so tired from raising his whip to answer salutes that he had to hand the
reins to his manager, Charles Wilson.
Thousands lined the streets at Brighton, and a dense crowd was wedged
in front of the Metropole to watch the
coach draw up at eight minutes past
3 o'clock.

German Nature Theater.

Unique plans are afoot for the construction of a permanent outdoor theater amid the picturesque wooded hills
of the grand duchy of Saxe-Weimar.
In the vicinity of Eisenach, in Germany, where it was Richard Wagner's original intention to establish the Fest-
spiel theater, now located at Baireuth
Eisenach is also the seat of the celebrated Wartburg castle, immortalized
by Martin Luther and within whose
walls the story of the "Meistersinger
of Nuremberg" is laid. A large sum
has already been subscribed for the
"nature theater" project, and its eventual realization is regarded as certain.

CASE IS UNPRECEDENTED

Half of a Boy's Brain Missing and Its Place Taken by a Fluid.

Baltimore, May 2.—Albert M. Groff,
eleven years old, died at the Maryland
homeopathic hospital after an operation. This operation made known a condition of the brain which the hospital physicians say is altogether un-
half of the brain substance had disappeared and its place was taken by a fluid, one and three-quarters pints of which were removed. About four years ago the boy was struck on the
head with a bat during a ball game.
No noteworthy effects followed at the
time, but months afterward young
Groff lost the sight of the right eye
and later the left became affected.
Subsequently the use of his right leg
was lost then that of his right arm.
Gradually the entire right side became affected and the left side of the skull was much distended. For some months past he had suffered no pain,
though he seemed to be slowly dying.
The operation was performed in the belief that there might be some pressure upon the brain. This was found
not to exist, however, the fluid found
seemingly having dissolved the brain
matter.

WAS MORNING CHURCH WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Lamb Gave Bridal Dinner at Their Home That Evening

The Clinton Daily Herald gave the following account of the wedding of Miss Onalee McCullough, which took place at Clinton Thursday. The same contained an extended account of a swell bridal dinner given that evening by Mr. and Mrs. LaFayette Lamb, aunt and uncle of the bride:

At St. Mary's church this morning at 11 o'clock, Miss Onalee McCullough, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Lamb and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough, of Memphis, Tenn., was united in marriage to Alexander Angus McDonell, son of A. B. McDonell, lumberman and banker of Chippewa Falls, Wis., the Very Rev. E. J. McLaughlin officiating, assisted by the entire corps of sanctuary boys. The nuptial high mass was celebrated with St. Mary's choir, directed by J. L. Clarke and Barborka's orchestra, who gave a beautiful program including the following numbers:

Wedding March from "Tannhauser" (Wagner).....Barborka's Orchestra
Kyrie Eleison (Generali).....
Choir and Orchestra
Offertory O Sponse Mi, duet.....
Miss Helen J. Conway and Mr.
Henry Koetter
Santus (Generali).....Benedictus

.....Choir and Orchestra
Wedding March.....(Bach)

Perfect in every detail were the arrangements for this morning's wedding, the most brilliant ceremony of its kind ever celebrated in the city. For several days the decorators have been busy getting the church in readiness for the ceremony and to the guests of the hour the scene was one of perfect charm. From the street doors, through entrance halls and up the double stairway to the many doors leading into the church, up the broad central aisle and into the chancel, the floors were crash covered. Grouped wherever there was space were palms and ferns and throughout the large edifice quantities of Easter lilies lifted their snowy cups. Above the center aisle just where the seats for the family were set apart by clusters of Easter lilies and white gauze tied at the pew entrances, was a central arch of asparagus fern studded with lilies. The chancel rail was hidden by a solid mass of lilies and fern that extended across the church and within the rail and before the altar were great bunches of the same perfect flower, and banks of potted lilies.

As the voluptuous music of Wagner, the Tannhauser wedding march, filled the air, the ushers drew the broad satin ribbons, anticipating the entrance of the bridal party. First came the masters of ceremony, Mr. Fred B. King and Dr. Lyman Ellis, preceding the four ushers, Mr. E. N. McDewitt, of Cloquet, Minn., Mr. Bangs Stewart, of Plano, Ill., Mr. George Wilson and Mr. Russell Belknap McCoy.

Then came the four attendants to the bride, Miss Agnes Baldwin, Mrs. Ernest Waddell, of Lincoln, Neb., Miss Louise Wilson, and Miss Mabel Hannah of Chicago, gowned alike in lovely robes of India mull and Val lace over blue, wearing large white Neapolitan hats laden with pink roses and a fluffy bow of blue ribbon. As an accessory to these dainty toilettes, shower bouquets of pink roses were carried.

Two diminutive attendants, Henrietta Gates, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Gates and Albert McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCoy, walked together, carrying between them a basket filled to the brim with pink roses, a knot of broad blue ribbon on the handle. The children were in white, a dainty white hat with blue ribbons completing the attire of the wee maiden.

Mrs. Horace Irvine, of St. Paul, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and walked alone. She was charming in a gown of blue chiffon lisse embroidered in gold, wearing a beautiful hat of harmonizing shades and carrying a bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridal gown was a marvelously beautifully imported robe of round point lace, hand made French net and crochet lace, combined with heavy satin, cut with high neck and mousquetaire sleeves of point lace falling over the

REV. E. R. MCKINNEY, EVANGELIST.

Rev. E. R. McKinney, of St. Paul, will begin a series of special meetings at the First Baptist Church tomorrow, speaking morning and evening, and also each evening during the week. Mr. McKinney is a man of approved ability; thoroughly equipped education, and experience to deal with the great truths of religion. His discourses will prove instructive and helpful to all who hear them. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to participate in the services.

hands. A bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley was carried.

The full length veil with its crown of orange blossoms and scattered buds did not conceal the lovely toilette nor the charming bride, for Miss McCullough is a blonde of the purest type with the carriage of a princess. She entered with her father and as they passed the floral arch, the groom and his best man, Mr. Horace Irvine, of St. Paul, preceded by the priest, entered the chancel for the Sacristy.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Lafayette Lamb home, which had been enhanced by the most elaborate details in floral decoration. Garlands of asparagus fern were used winding through the balusters and veiling the broad open stair case, holding at intervals sheafs of Easter lilies, with bunches of flowers at every turn. In the east drawing room the north wall and the mantel were veiled with a tapestry of asparagus fern studded with Easter lilies, the effect in this spacious room, lovely beyond description. In every available nook of the first floor apartments Easter lilies in pots were used, the Japanese baskets holding them of alternate colors, pink and green and tied with gauze ribbons of the contrasting color.

The den had been fitted up for a breakfast room for the bridal party and here was placed the beautiful mahogany table, its polished surface covered only by the Duchess lace center piece and the doilies of Duchess lace and Mother of Pearl embroidery for the dishes. The center of the table held a wreath of bride roses and lilies of the valley encircled by a large wreath of the same blossoms in intricate woven design. Heart-shaped place cards in water colors and orchid cups for the nut meats completed the table garniture.

The guests were served in the dining room proper from a table quaintly picturesque with its studding of Killarney rose buds about the silver and French gilt circlet that held the cut glass flower bowls and incandescer bulbs for delicate lighting effects. Quantities of this lovely pink rose, the Killarney, were used in bunches in all the rooms, giving a touch of color to the green and white background of the lilies.

Punch was served in the alcove off the main hall from a bowl concealed in a mound of white carnations.

Mrs. Lamb received her guests in a Parisian costume of chiffon cloth in Persian design with hand embroidered French net and cream net in combination. At the church a black hat and long black gloves were worn. Mrs. McCullough wore white, heavily trimmed with Irish crochet and a large white hat.

Later an opportunity was given for an inspection of the magnificent array of wedding gifts shown on the third floor. In addition to the silver, linen and cut glass, art treasures from every corner of the old world and the new were lavished on the lovely bride, whose charming personality has made her most popular in the leading social circles of the middle west. In marrying the only son of one of the lumber barons of the north, Miss McCullough continues her association and friendships in these circles.

The young couple had planned an extensive European trip but owing to his father's illness this spring, abandoned their plans and leaving this afternoon for the east will spend the next three months at the various summer resorts.

Among the guests from out of town were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough, Memphis, Tenn.
Mrs. Hemstead, Brainerd, Minn.
Mrs. Murphy, Brainerd, Minn.
Mrs. Hartley, Brainerd, Minn.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. SUNDAY A BUSY DAY

Rev. John Daniels, of Kansas, Will
Preach Three Times Tomorrow
Morning and Evening

Rev. John Daniels addressed a large and deeply interested audience last evening at the Methodist church. His sermon left a deep impression on the audience. He took for his theme "The Influence of the Mystic Principle of Love," and at times scarcely a dry eye was in the audience, so touchingly and deftly did he portray its magic influence in all walks of life. There will be services held by the evangelist tomorrow, Sunday. At the morning and evening service he will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church, and at 3:30 in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. He will lecture to men only on "Forbidden Fruit." At the noon hour at the Northern Pacific shops, Revs. Daniels and Davis will give short addresses and songs, during the week.

There is nothing in the reports published in the Herald to throw any light on the prices charged for water or current, which, if given would have added materially to the value of the statistics as a comparison with what might be expected in Brainerd. According to the figures given there were 148,350,000 gallons of water pumped, or an average of 405,060 per day. A daily saving of 150,000 gallons daily was effected over previous years by the proper adjustment and care of sewer flushing tanks. There were 158 electric irons placed by the department during the year, making a total of 188 placed by the department. The total uncollectible bills for the year were $29.49, which is less than 1-10 of one per cent of the receipts from private service.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The rest of the preliminaries in the cue roque senior tournament were played last night. Keating beat Fuller two straight games and McMeekin beat Lowey two games. The semi-final between Keating and McMeekin, as well as the final between White and the winner will probably be played this evening.

The regular annual meeting of the association will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday evening. All members are invited to be present, though only active members are entitled to vote. There will be 13 out of the fifteen members of the board of directors elected that evening.

In the junior cue roque tournament today Harry Fullerton won two out of three from Edwin Blake. Richard Ahrens won two straight from Robbie Stickney. George McLeod took two straight from Will Slipp and Verne Bennett took two from Robbie Elder.

In the semi-finals Ahrens took two games from Fullerton and Bennett two from McLeod. In the finals, which were to be three out of five Ahrens won the first two, lost the third and won the fourth, making him champion of the junior section.

RAILROAD NEWS

According to the Duluth News-Tribune Superintendent Blanchard has asked the city officials to assess the railroad in cleaning up a portion of what is known as "The Bowery," which has been the leading hangout of lumberjacks and which has been an eyesore to all who had to go to and from the docks. Mr. Blanchard requests that the city council refuse to grant a renewal of a license for an employment agency and says that if this is done the company will tear down the shacks which have bordered the street.

The grade over the hill near Tamarac on the Northern Pacific is to be lowered six feet. A crew will throw the main track to one side next Sunday and a steam shovel will be installed to cut down where the track now is. The dirt taken from the cut will be used in raising low places in the track across the swamps near there.

The Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroad companies have issued orders calling in all their cars which have been in use on eastern roads the past few months. They believe, apparently, that there is a busy season ahead and wish to be prepared for it.

Home That Evening

The Clinton Daily Herald gave the following account of the wedding of Miss Onalee McCullough, which took place at Clinton Thursday. The same contained an extended account of a swell bridal dinner given that evening by Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Lamb, aunt and uncle of the bride:

At St. Mary's church this morning at 11 o'clock, Miss Onalee McCullough, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Lamb and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough, of Memphis, Tenn., was united in marriage to Alexander Angus McDonell, son of A. B. McDonell, lumberman and banker of Chippewa Falls, Wis., the Very Rev. E. J. McLaughlin officiating, assisted by the entire corps of sanctuary boys. The nuptial high mass was celebrated with St. Mary's choir, directed by J. L. Clarke and Barboraka's orchestra, who gave a beautiful program including the following numbers:

Wedding March from "Tannhauser" (Wagner).....Barboraka's Orchestra
Kyrie Eleison (Generali).....

Perfect in every detail were the arrangements for this morning's wedding, the most brilliant ceremony of its kind ever celebrated in the city. For several days the decorators have been busy getting the church in readiness for the ceremony and to the guests of the hour the scene was one of perfect charm. From the street doors, through entrance halls and up the double stairway to the many doors leading into the church, up the broad central aisle and into the chancel, the floors were crash covered. Grouped wherever there was space were palms and ferns and throughout the large edifice quantities of Easter lilies lifted their snowy cups. Above the center aisle just where the seats for the family were set apart by clusters of Easter lilies and white gauze tied at the pew entrances, was a central arch of asparagus fern studded with lilies. The chancel rail was hidden by a solid mass of lilies and fern that extended across the church and within the rail and before the altar were great bunches of the same perfect flower, and banks of potted lilies.

As the voluptuous music of Wagner, the Tannhauser wedding march, filled the air, the ushers drew the broad satin ribbons, anticipating the entrance of the bride party. First came the masters of ceremony, Mr. Fred B. King and Dr. Lyman Ellis, preceding the four ushers, Mr. E. N. McDevitt, of Cloquet, Minn., Mr. Bangs Stewart, of Plano, Ill., Mr. George Wilson and Mr. Russell Belknap McCoy.

Then came the four attendants to the bride, Miss Agnes Baldwin, Mrs. Ernest Waddell, of Lincoln, Neb., Miss Louise Wilson, and Miss Mabel Hannah of Chicago, gowned alike in lovely robes of India mull and Val lace over blue, wearing large white Neapolitan hats laden with pink roses and a fluffy bow of blue ribbon. As an accessory to these dainty toilettes, shower bouquets of pink roses were carried.

Two diminutive attendants, Henrietta Gates, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Gates and Albert McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCoy, walked together, carrying between them a basket filled to the brim with pink roses, a knot of broad blue ribbon on the handle. The children were in white, a dainty white hat with blue ribbons completing the attire of the wee maiden.

Mrs. Horace Irvine, of St. Paul, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and walked alone. She was charming in a gown of blue chiffon lisse embroidered in gold, wearing a beautiful hat of harmonizing shades and carrying a bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridal gown was a marvelously beautifully imported robe of round point lace, hand made French net and crochet lace, combined with heavy satin, cut with high neck and mousquetaire sleeves of point lace falling over the hands. A bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley was carried.

The full length veil with its crown of orange blossoms and scattered buds did not conceal the lovely toilette nor the charming bride, for Miss McCullough is a blonde of the purest type with the carriage of a princess. She entered with her father and as they passed the floral arch, the groom and his best man, Mr. Horace Irvine, of St. Paul, preceded by the priest, entered the chancel from the Sacristy.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Lafayette Lamb home, which had been enhanced by the most elaborate details in floral decoration. Garlands of asparagus fern were used winding through the balusters and veiling the broad open stair case, holding at intervals sheafs of Easter lilies, with bunches of flowers at every turn. In the east drawing room the north wall and the mantel were veiled with a tapestry of asparagus fern studded with Easter lilies, the effect in this spacious room, lovely beyond description. In every available nook of the first floor apartments Easter lilies in pots were used, the Japanese baskets holding them of alternate colors, pink and green and tied with gauze ribbons of the contrasting color.

The den had been fitted up for a breakfast room for the bridal party and here was placed the beautiful mahogany table, its polished surface covered only by the Duchess lace center piece and the dolies of Duchess lace and Mother of Pearl embroidery for the dishes. The center of the table held a wreath of bride roses and lilies of the valley encircled by a large wreath of the same blossoms in intricate woven design. Heart-shaped place cards in water colors and orchid cups for the nut meats completed the table garniture.

The guests were served in the dining room proper from a table quaintly picturesque with its studding of Killarney rose buds about the silver and French gilt circle that held the cut glass flower bowls and incandescer t bulbs for delicate lighting effects. Quantities of this lovely pink rose, the Killarney, were used in bunches in all the rooms, giving a touch of color to the green and white back ground of the lilies.

Punch was served in the alcove off the main hall from a bowl concealed in a mound of white carnations.

Mrs. Lamb received her guests in a Parisian costume of chiffon cloth in Persian design with hand embroidered French net and cream net in combination. At the church a black hat and long black gloves were worn. Mrs. McCullough wore white, heavily trimmed with Irish crochet and a large white hat.

Later an opportunity was given for an inspection of the magnificent array of wedding gifts shown on the third floor. In addition to the silver, linen and cut glass, art treasures from every corner of the old world and the new were lavished on the lovely bride, whose charming personality has made her most popular in the leading social circles of the middle west. In marrying the only son of one of the lumber barons of the north, Miss McCullough continues her association and friendships in these circles.

The young couple had planned an extensive European trip but owing to their father's illness this spring, abandoned their plans and leaving this afternoon for the east will spend the next three months at the various summer resorts.

Among the guests from out of town were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough, Memphis, Tenn.
Mrs. Hemstead, Brainerd, Minn.
Mrs. Murphy, Brainerd, Minn.
Mrs. Hartley, Brainerd, Minn.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Orvin Poler, an employee of Jones' saw mill on Gull lake had the misfortune to lose two fingers on his right hand Friday forenoon. He was brought to this city and Dr. Nicholson amputated the fingers at the knuckle. He was getting along nicely today.

SUNDAY A BUSY DAY

Rev. John Daniels, of Kansas, Will
Preach Three Times Tomorrow
Morning and Evening

Rev. John Daniels addressed a large and deeply interested audience last evening at the Methodist church. His sermon left a deep impression on the audience. He took for his theme "The Influence of the Mystic Principle of Love," and at times scarcely a dry eye was in the audience, so touchingly and deftly did he portray its magic influence in all walks of life. There will be services held by the evangelist tomorrow, Sunday. At the morning and evening service he will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church, and at 3:30 in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. He will lecture to men only on "Forbidden Fruit." At the noon hour at the Northern Pacific shops, Revs. Daniels and Davis will give short addresses and songs, during the week.

There is nothing in the reports published in the Herald to throw any light on the prices charged for water or current, which, if given would have added materially to the value of the statistics as a comparison with what might be expected in Brainerd. According to the figures given there were 148,350,000 gallons of water pumped, or an average of 405,060 per day. A daily saving of 150,000 gallons daily was effected over previous years by the proper adjustment and care of sewer flushing tanks. There were 158 electric irons placed by the department during the year, making a total of 188 placed by the department. The total uncollectible bills for the year were $29.49, which is less than 1-10 of one per cent of the receipts from private service.

According to the Duluth News-Tribune Superintendent Blanchard has asked the city officials to assess the railroad in cleaning up a portion of what is known as "The Bowery," which has been the leading hangout of lumberjacks and which has been an eyesore to all who had to go to and from the docks. Mr. Blanchard requests that the city council refuse to grant a renewal of a license for an employment agency and says that if this is done the company will tear down the shacks which have bordered the street.

The grade over the hill near Tamarac on the Northern Pacific is to be lowered six feet. A crew will throw the main track to one side next Sunday and a steam shovel will be installed to cut down where the track now is. The dirt taken from the cut will be used in raising low places in the track across the swamps near there.

The Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroad companies have issued orders calling in all their cars which have been in use on eastern roads the past few months. They believe, apparently, that there is a busy season ahead and wish to be prepared for it.

WOUNDS THREE PERSONS.

Two of a Young Italian's Victims May Die.
East Liverpool, O., May 2.—Rafael Fracca, a young Italian, is accused of shooting three persons, two of them fatally. The victims are: Christiana Pappendrea, shot through the lungs; Rafael Commit, his sweet heart, shot in the shoulder; Pietro Nicollotta, shot in the back.
All three are in a hospital and the condition of the girl and Nicollotta is critical. The shooting took place in the store of the girl's father. Fracca was jealous of Commit. He walked into the store and it is said opened fire without a word. The first bullet hit Nicollotta. The two others were then shot.
Fracca fled and has not been captured.

CLEVELAND VERY ILL

Condition of Former President Said to Be Critical.

HIS MALADY IS INCURABLE

Reported That He Is Suffering From Cancer of the Stomach—No Confirmation or Denial of the Rumors Can Be Obtained.

New York, May 2.—Considerable anxiety has been occasioned by widely circulated rumors that the condition of ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been ill for several weeks at a hotel in Lakewood, N. J., has assumed a grave phase and that slight hopes were entertained for his recovery. The Evening World gave prominence to reports current at the office of the Equitable Life Assurance society, of which Mr. Cleveland is a voting trustee, that the former president's physicians had diagnosed his illness as cancer of the stomach and had decided that there was no hope of their distinguished patient's recovery.

Positive denial of these statements is not obtainable. Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, who has attended Mr. Cleveland for years, said that his patient was "all right," and that all his reports from Lakewood were favorable. In answer to a question as to whether Mr. Cleveland was suffering from cancer of the stomach, Dr. Bryant said that as a physician he could not make public the diagnosis in the case of any of his patients. Any information of such a subject, were it to be given to the public, should come from the family, he said.

At the Lakewood hotel it was said that Mr. Cleveland was making very satisfactory progress and it was denied that his case had assumed a serious aspect.

The rumor as to Mr. Cleveland's state of health attracted unusual attention because of the reticence observed since it became known about ten days ago that the former president was remaining at Lakewood after the hotel at which he had been was closed for the season.

At Lakewood efforts were made to obtain an authorized statement regarding Mr. Cleveland's illness from the hotel authorities, or through them a statement from Mrs. Cleveland. But the same answer, "nothing to say," was all that was given out, though several inquiries were made. Some of the friends of the former president who have seen Mrs. Cleveland say that she has told them that there is nothing serious the matter with Mr. Cleveland, but they add that she appears much worried regarding her husband's condition.

It is known in Lakewood that as yet no local physician or additional nurses have been called into the case and Dr. Joseph T. Bryant of New York, the family physician, visits Mr. Cleveland only every other night.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

Weather Conditions Have Been Very Unfavorable.

New York, May 2.—Bradstreet's review of trade says weather conditions have been unfavorable to distributive trade this week, and a rather quiet trade is reported the country over. Jobbing trade has remained quiet, with business confined to small filling in orders. Fall business has shown no particular increase in activity and orders are still scarce. The disposition seems to be to let the jobbers carry the goods, and manufacturers are likewise disinclined to make up stocks ahead of orders. Collections are still slow and extensions asked for or granted are still a feature. Thus far industrial output shows little or no disposition to expand. Curtailment is still the feature in textile lines, and some leading centers report production 40 per cent off the normal. Iron and steel industries show little change from preceding quiet conditions, except that talk of price reductions in the crude iron branch is becoming more pronounced, while finished lines hold at previous quotations. Railway tonnage is at a very low point, idle cars have increased to a record total, with coal cars prominent, indicating that this trade is especially short of work. Foreign trade is quiet as a whole, but some improvement is reported in export demand for cereals after the smallest week's shipments in two years. The best points in the situation are the more cheerful feeling as to the ability of railroads to borrow and the undeniably good outlook for the winter wheat crop.

Chicago, May 2.—Delivery day on May contracts was marked by a burst of speculative fireworks in the Chicago wheat pit. May wheat soared to $1.04, an advance of 4½ cents over the previous close. Then a slight reaction dropped the price back to $1.02. The current delivery was boosted 3½ cents to $1.04, finally closing at $1.02.

There is much sensational talk of a corner in wheat by J. Ogden Armour. This Armour's grain manager, George E. Marcy, denies, but nevertheless the fact seems to remain that Armour owns all the Chicago wheat in sight and bear traders caught short in the squeeze blamed their dilemma to this fact.

To all appeals of the shorts Mr. Marcy is reported to have said: "You sold your wheat in the pit; go there and buy it back."

Armour is credited with holding 6,000,000 bushels of wheat in his Chicago elevators. Shrewd traders say he cleaned up close to $1,000,000 on the squeeze.

WOUNDS THREE PERSONS.

Two of a Young Italian's Victims May Die.

East Liverpool, O., May 2.—Rafael Fracea, a young Italian, is accused of shooting three persons, two of them fatally. The victims are:

Christiana Pappendrea, shot through the lungs; Rafael Commit, his sweet heart, shot in the shoulder; Pietro Nicollotta, shot in the back.

All three are in a hospital and the condition of the girl and Nicollotta is critical. The shooting took place in the store of the girl's father. Fracea was jealous of Commit. He walked into the store and it is said opened fire without a word. The first bullet hit Nicollotta. The two others were then shot.

Fracea fled and has not been captured.

Jury Acquits Minneapolis Man.

Minneapolis, May 2.—The jury in the case of William Griswold, accused of having shot and mortally wounded Bennie Navratil, six years old, returned a verdict in Judge David F. Simpson's court of "not guilty." The young bride, who has been constantly by the side of her husband during the trial, wept with joy at the good news.

GLIMPSES OF LINEVITCH.

Russian General Who Was Called "Papa" by His Men.

General Nikolai Petrovitch Linevitch, who recently died at St. Petersburg, succeeded General Kuropatkin as commander in chief of the czar's forces in Manchuria in the war with Japan. He began his military career in the Crimean war and was conspicuous in the war with Turkey twenty years later. He served in the Caucasus, and he commanded the first body of Russian troops stationed in Siberia. He was a small, spare man like Lord Roberts. Like Roberts, he was dashing, brave in battle, but he was not great.

He led the Russian troops in the international army that advanced on Peking in July, 1900, to relieve the consulates, and he tried on Aug. 14 to steal a march on his colleagues whom he had allowed to bear the heat and burden of the day on the march up from Tientsin. About this time at a conference of the allied generals Linevitch said he had 18,000 men in and around Peking.

"That's an infernal lie!" cried General Chaffee, the American commander. This was translated to General Linevitch, who knew no language but his own, but all he said was: "La-la-la-la."

When General Linevitch commanded the troops in the South Ussuri region, he personally ascertained for himself the efficiency of every man under his command. He made the acquaintance of each rifleman, and, although many of his subordinates heartily cursed the "worrying" general on account of his endless inspections, the result of his labors is that the Siberian rifles have acquired the reputation of being the best soldiers in Siberia. The Russian battalions in eastern Siberia ceased to be mere bands of workmen; they became soldiers.

This old general had a very high opinion of individual initiative, the lack of which in other portions of the Russian army was so fatal during the late war with Japan. Instead of punishing officers for acting on their own initiative, he was even known to reward them under circumstances when other commanders would have censured their conduct.

He entertained a most sympathetic regard for the private wants of his men and inspired the confidence of all who were under him. His soldiers call him "Papasha Linevitch" a name which of itself told of the paternal relations between him and his men.

PRICE OF PAPER RAISED.

Although Publisher Had Contract With Paper Company.

Washington, May 2.—Testifying before the house select committee on wood pulp and paper investigation, Medill McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, explained his several paper contracts of the past ten years and said that although he had a five-year contract with one year yet to run, with the International Paper company, the price had been raised from $1.85 per hundred to $2.20.

Further evidence was submitted by John Norris, representing the American Newspaper Publishers' association, in support of the association's claim that there is a combination or agreement in restraint of trade among the several groups of papermakers.

Two Young Negroes Hanged.

Columbia, S. C., May 2.—Ned and Brack Tolan, two young negroes who murdered Mrs. Paul Ellison, an aged white woman, at Cayce, Lexington county, two months ago, were hanged at the Lexington jail. The murder of Mrs. Ellison was a most brutal one, the younger Tolan boy holding her while the elder brained her with an axe. The boys afterwards robbed the house of various articles of clothing.

CLEVELAND VERY ILL

Condition of Former President Said to Be Critical.

HIS MALADY IS INCURABLE

Reported That He Is Suffering From Cancer of the Stomach—No Confirmation or Denial of the Rumors Can Be Obtained.

New York, May 2.—Considerable anxiety has been occasioned by widely circulated rumors that the condition of ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been ill for several weeks at a hotel in Lakewood, N. J., has assumed a grave phase and that slight hopes were entertained for his recovery. The Evening World gave prominence to reports current at the office of the Equitable Life Assurance society, of which Mr. Cleveland is a voting trustee, that the former president's physicians had diagnosed his illness as cancer of the stomach and had decided that there was no hope of their distinguished patient's recovery.

Positive denial of these statements is not obtainable. Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, who has attended Mr. Cleveland for years, said that his patient was "all right," and that all his reports from Lakewood were favorable. In answer to a question as to whether Mr. Cleveland was suffering from cancer of the stomach, Dr. Bryant said that as a physician he could not make public the diagnosis in the case of any of his patients. Any information of such a subject, were it to be given to the public, should come from the family, he said.

At the Lakewood hotel it was said that Mr. Cleveland was making very satisfactory progress and it was denied that his case had assumed a serious aspect.

The rumor as to Mr. Cleveland's state of health attracted unusual attention because of the reticence observed since it became known about ten days ago that the former president was remaining at Lakewood after the hotel at which he had been was closed for the season.

At Lakewood efforts were made to obtain an authorized statement regarding Mr. Cleveland's illness from the hotel authorities, or through them a statement from Mrs. Cleveland. But the same answer, "nothing to say," was all that was given out, though several inquiries were made. Some of the friends of the former president who have seen Mrs. Cleveland say that she has told them that there is nothing serious the matter with Mr. Cleveland, but they add that she appears much worried regarding her husband's condition.

It is known in Lakewood that as yet no local physician or additional nurses have been called into the case and Dr. Joseph T. Bryant of New York, the family physician, visits Mr. Cleveland only every other night.

Pains of the Aged ARE OVERCOME.

Almost daily we hear of people of advanced years whose pains and aches have been overcome, and whose life has been made more comfortable by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills.

Because the liver, kidneys and bowels become sluggish in action, poisonous waste matter is left in the blood, and this brings the pains and aches, the stiff joints, lame back and rheumatism.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

Help most promptly and cure most thoroughly on account of their direct and combined action on liver, kidneys and bowels. They are the most popular medicine the famous Receipt Book author ever introduced, and are guaranteed by his portrait and signature on the box. Mr. Sylvester Pappert, 117 South Main St., Shenandoah, Pa., states: "For twenty years I was troubled with constipation and kidney troubles, and could get no relief; since using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills the pains and aches have gone, the action of the kidneys is normal and the bowels regular."

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

Weather Conditions Have Been Very Unfavorable.

New York, May 2.—Bradstreet's review of trade says weather conditions have been unfavorable to distributive trade this week, and a rather quiet trade is reported the country over. Jobbing trade has remained quiet, with business confined to small filling in orders. Fall business has shown no particular increase in activity and orders are still scarce. The disposition seems to be to let the jobbers carry the goods, and manufacturers are likewise disinclined to make up stocks ahead of orders. Collections are still slow and extensions asked for or granted are still a feature. Thus far industrial output shows little or no disposition to expand. Curtailment is still the feature in textile lines, and some leading centers report production 40 per cent off the normal. Iron and steel industries show little change from preceding quiet conditions, except that talk of price reductions in the crude iron branch is becoming more pronounced, while finished lines hold at previous quotations. Railway tonnage is at a very low point, idle cars have increased to a record total, with coal cars prominent, indicating that this trade is especially short of work. Foreign trade is quiet as a whole, but some improvement is reported in export demand for cereals after the smallest week's shipments in two years. The best points in the situation are the more cheerful feeling as to the ability of railroads to borrow and the undeniably good outlook for the winter wheat crop.

Demarest Defeats Poggenburg.

New York, May 2.—Calvin W. Demarest of the Chicago Athletic club, the American amateur champion, defeated J. Ferdinand Poggenburg of the Liederkrantz club, New York, in the international billiard championship tournament at the Liederkrantz club by a score of 400 to 238. The champion was at his best and played reliable billiards, averaging 21-19 for 19 innings. He made the high run of the tournament with 120.

Laredo, Tex., May 2.—The Wells Fargo Express company has reported to the authorities of Torreon, Mex., a loss of $63,000 in Mexican currency which they claim was taken from a through safe on their City of Mexico train. The money was consigned to one of the banks of Chihuahua. Two arrests have been made in Torreon although it is not believed by the officials that the men who were arrested have the money. It appears that one of the agents of the company boarded the express train at a station between the City of Mexico and Torreon, after ward leaving the train. It is said that he was the only man who was in the car who knew the combination of the safe. He has not yet been apprehended.
